Complaints and appeals

Brighton Institute of Technology (BIT) takes seriously complaints and appeals involving the conduct of:

- the RTO, its trainers, assessors, or other staff,
- a third-party providing services on the RTO's behalf, its trainers, assessors, or other staff,
- a student of the RTO.

Complaint – a statement that something is unsatisfactory or unacceptable which requires a systematic or formal resolution. Complaints can be either formal or informal. Informal complaints are handled directly by the BIT staff member concerned along with the student and the time of the incident. Formal complaints must be made via the form available either on the website or from administration. Once such a complaint is lodged the CEO will form a panel to look at and resolve it. If they cannot do so, then the complainant has the right to appeal (see below)

1.1 Complaints can include but not limited to the following:

- Enrolment process,
- The quality of the training delivery,
- Assessment outcomes/including recognition of prior learning,
- Issuing of results, certificates and /or statements of attainment,
- Any other activities associated with the delivery of training and assessment services,
- Conduct of the RTO regarding its students,
- Conduct of other students,
- Issues arising from third party providers on behalf of the RTO,
- Other issues such as, Discrimination, sexual harassment, victimization, disability discrimination and bullying.
- 1.2 Appeal to apply to a higher authority or external body for review of how a complaint process was handled or in relation to an unfavourable decision made against them.

1.3 External Appeal

A request for an independent, external review of a decision and handling of a scenario.

1.4 Overseas Student Ombudsman (OSO) This service is only available to overseas students.

The Overseas Students Ombudsman investigates complaints about problems that overseas students or intending overseas students may have with private education and training in Australia. The legal basis for the Ombudsman role is the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Legislation Amendment Act 2011, passed by the Australian Parliament on 21 March 2011.

Responsibility

- 1.1 The CEO has the responsibility for ensuring this policy/procedure is implemented and executed accurately and effectively.
- 1.2 Management Team
 - handles all complaints and appeals relevant to their area of responsibility.
- 1.3 Trainers and Assessors
 - Operate in accordance with BIT Complaints and Appeals,
 - Refer any formal complaints to the relevant management member.

1.4 Administration Staff

• Maintain the complaints and appeals register, in conjunction with the management team.

The cause of any complaint or appeal will be included into BIT continuous improvement processes to ensure all quality processes are effective.

For more information see the complaints and appeals policy on BIT's website
