Pre-Training Review Interview (PTR) – Prospective student must complete this section

A Pre-Training review (PTR) is a process undertaken to determine the most suitable and appropriate course and training for an individual. At Brighton Institute of Technology (BIT) the Pre-Training Review is used to determine your current competencies, suitability for the course and is an essential component of the selection process.

The pre-training review ensures that BIT:

- understands the student's reasons for undertaking the course,
- ensures the suitability of the training for the student,
- understands the student's current competencies and therefore provides opportunities for these to be assessed through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Recognized Current Competency (RCC) and/or Credit Transfer (CT),
- ensures the student's English level and Language, Literacy and Numeracy skills suit the training and assessment strategies employed to deliver the course, and
- provides the relevant support required by the student to succeed in the course.

1. How is this course going to help you in your future career prospects?

2. What do you hope to achieve by gaining these skills or qualification??

3. What do you know about your intended area of study or related industry? Why did you choose BIT as your desired course provider for this course?
